 In Bed With the Devil is a beautiful redemption story. It is darker and grittier than any of Ms. Heath's previous books, but it needs to be to fit the feel of the story. I must say that I was captivated by the secondary characters Winnie and the rest of Feagan's lads and wonder which of them will be featured in the next book in this series.

At first, I didn't believe him when he said he was the Devil, Hades, Beelzebub, Pluto, and the many other names he's gone by. He didn't want me to call him Hades, though.
