Royal Bafokeng Nursing School

We focus on wellness at Lebone College to ensure that our students and teachers are supported and taken care of holistically. For students who need the additional support, the Teaching and Learning Centre (TLC) offers individualised education programmes, and together with the wider pastoral care programme, we ensure that every child at Lebone II is known and taken care of.

TVET Nursing School - The Royal Bafokeng Nation

About RBN The Royal Bafokeng Nation (RBN) is located in the North West province of South Africa. The administrative capital, Phokeng is near the town of Rustenburg, around 150km from the major hub of Johannesburg. Home to some 150,000 members living in some 29 villages, the RBN is in many ways a typical South African community.

Royal Bafokeng Nation - About RBI

Ever true to our values, we operate on a sliding, means/needs scale of fees, which makes the school accessible without compromising excellence. Whilst we reserve a portion of our enrolment for students from the Bafokeng Nation, we welcome students from every background and enjoy their successes as part of the Lebone II community.
