Dueling Around with the Brothers' War. The pre-millennial era of Magic storytelling did give us two really compelling multi-block narratives, though. The first is the story of Gerrard Capashen and the crew of the Weatherlight versus the invading forces of Phyrexia. The second is The Brothers' War, an earlier tale where Urza and Mishra fought for control of Dominaria.

The first book we are examining today is not the first book written under Magic: The Gathering IPs, but it is the first piece of the storyline they have infused in their earlier card sets. The Brothers' War was published in 1998, which is a very important note on the progression of both the company and the literature.
